

INTERNAL STAKEHOLDER UNIT

Minister	Research Assistant Dr. Emine GÜNEŞ ŞAN
Member	Dr. Necmiye ÇÖMLEKÇİ, Assistant Professor
Member	Lecturer Dr. Simge ÖZTÜRK
Member	Lecturer Feyzan ÖZÇELİK
Member	Research Assistant Gizem Nur MAZLUM

Job Description: The task of this unit is to conduct the necessary studies to obtain feedback from students, faculty members, and administrative staff of the Nursing Department at Bartın University Faculty of Health Sciences regarding program objectives, program outcomes, and the benefits and opportunities provided by the nursing education program, and to report the results to the relevant committee.

Duties, Powers, and Responsibilities:

- It gathers students' opinions about the objectives of the nursing education program.
- It gathers students' opinions on the outcomes of the nursing education program.
- The program gathers students' opinions on the functioning of courses and exams within the nursing education program.
- It gathers students' opinions about the educational environment related to the nursing education program.
- The program gathers students' opinions about the laboratory related to the nursing education program.
- The program gathers students' opinions on the functioning of clinical and field practices related to the nursing education program.
- The program gathers students' opinions about the services and facilities available at the university/faculty regarding nursing education programs.
- It gathers students' opinions regarding academic guidance/counseling services related to the nursing education program.
- The Nursing Department gathers the opinions of its faculty members regarding the objectives of the nursing education program.
- The Nursing Department gathers the opinions of its faculty members regarding the outcomes of nursing education programs.
- The Nursing Department gathers the opinions of its faculty members regarding the nursing education program.
- The Nursing Department gathers feedback from faculty members regarding the laboratory in relation to the nursing education program.
- The Nursing Department gathers the opinions of its faculty members regarding the functioning of clinical and field practices related to the nursing education program.
- The Nursing Department gathers the opinions of its faculty members regarding the services and facilities available at the university/faculty related to the nursing education program.
- It gathers the opinions of administrative staff regarding the objectives of the nursing education program.
- It gathers feedback from administrative staff regarding the outcomes of nursing education programs.
- The program gathers the opinions of administrative staff regarding the services and facilities available at the university/faculty related to the nursing education program.
- They submit reports on the activities to the Measurement and Evaluation Committee.