

Bartın University Social Contribution Policy Paper

In line with the strategic goals and objectives of Bartın University;

- To contribute to science, art and culture through mechanisms defined at local, national, and universal levels with the awareness of social responsibility,
- To train qualified human resources that will contribute to social development,
- To enrich local, regional, and national socio-cultural life through scientific and social activities,
- To contribute to social development through lifelong learning activities,
- To carry out research and applications for regional and social needs in cooperation with public, private sector and non-governmental organisations,
- To ensure that the university's academic and administrative human resources and students internalise the awareness of social responsibility,
- To make community service, volunteering, and social responsibility activities an integral part of education and training,
- To carry out research and applications that will contribute to the formation of environmental awareness in terms of sustainable society and environment,
- To support, carry out and continuously improve activities that contribute to society,

It adopts "SOCIAL CONTRIBUTION QUALITY POLICY".